Encouraging Words From a Summit Student

"Brother George Faull – I wanted to say "thank you" and let you know how grateful I am to have had the privilege of attending Summit to be able to sit in a classroom, where true Bible teaching is being taught. I never, for one moment, dreamed of the level and quality that I was going to be taught. All of the professors had a way with these teachings that literally opened up the Scriptures to me. I started learning the Word of God in a much deeper meaningful way. Not only have I come to an understanding of God's Word, but my walk with the Lord has become so much closer with His Will.

The classes at Summit have equipped me with the education and confidence to speak to anyone anywhere about the Gospel of Christ. Brother Kendall Faull taught me how to evangelize in a way that I didn't know was possible or to the way that you have opened up the Parables to me. The same way Brother Terry Carter took us verse by verse showing us things in Acts that somehow I overlooked, as we went step by step learning things I never saw before. Brother Shane Capps brought to life the history of Israel. I never knew I was praying wrong all of these years until Brother Jerry Paul showed us the correct way from the Word of God. I now can pray with confidence that my prayers will not only be heard, but answered.

Brother George, the way you taught us of the shepherds has truly opened up my eyes and heart towards the Elders of the flock. Nor did I realize the true importance of encouragement until Brother Denny Coburn taught me at the LEAP Program about it. In this day and age, it is so important to have true, sound Bible teaching. Thank you for providing that. Because of the things I have learned at Summit, I have been able to witness correctly to both of my sons. I just baptized my oldest son, Joshua David, this week.

Brother George, I owe you so much. I pray the Lord blesses you one-thousand-fold. Thank you again."
