LGBT STILL EXPECTING SPECIAL PRIVILEGES

Submitted by Jeff Faull

Nobody has a "right" to serve in the Military. Nobody.

What makes people think the Military is an equal opportunity employer? Very far from it.

The Military uses prejudice regularly and consistently to deny citizens from joining for being too old, too young, too fat, too skinny, too tall, or too short.

Citizens are denied for having flat feet, or for missing/having additional fingers. Poor eyesight will disqualify you as well as bad teeth.

- Malnourished?
- Drug addiction?
- Bad back?
- Criminal history?
- Low IQ?
- Anxiety?
- Phobias?
- Hearing damage?
- Six arms?
- Hear voices in your head?
- Self-identify as a Unicorn?
- Need a special access ramp or wheelchair?
- Can't run the required course in a required time?
- Can't do the required number pushups?
- Not really a "morning person" and refuse to get out of bed before noon?

All reasons for denial!

The Military has one job. War! Anything else is a distraction and a liability.

Did someone scream, "That isn't fair?"

War is VERY unfair, there are no exceptions made for being special, challenged, or socially wonderful.

YOU change yourself to meet the Military standards, not the other way around.

I say again... You don't change the Military...you must change yourself. The Military doesn't need to accommodate anyone with special issues. The Military needs to Win Wars!

Thank you for applying and good luck in future endeavors.
